

The Brilliance of British Architecture And Design

Presented by Ian Swankie

Ian Swankie is a Londoner with a contagious enthusiasm for art and architecture. He is an official guide at Tate Modern, Tate Britain, Guildhall Art Gallery, and St Paul's Cathedral. He is also a freelance London tour guide.

Lecture 1: Thomas Heatherwick – a Modern Leonardo

Thomas Heatherwick came to the public's attention with his acclaimed Olympic cauldron in 2012 and his new Routemaster replacement London bus. He uses curiosity and experimentation to produce a vast range of innovative solutions to design challenges in the UK and abroad.

Lecture 2: The Brilliance of British Architects at Home and Abroad

British architects have made a huge impact on world architecture and the lives of people who enjoy their buildings. This talk covers designs by George Gilbert Scott, Giles Gilbert Scott, Edwin Lutyens and Charles Holden, alongside more recent works by Zaha Hadid, Richard Rogers, and Norman Foster.
