

THE SOUND OF THE SILENTS

Presented by Christopher Budd

What is it about the movies that continues to attract us so much? Our speaker, Christopher Budd, is a writer, teacher and musician with a special interest in film music: from the silents to electronic music of today.

The Art of the Movie Poster

What's behind the movie posters that pulls us in? From the art deco of Metropolis, all the way to the formulaic multiplex offerings of today, poster art is a class of its own. Some are timeless works of art, some are downright deceptive, some are startlingly original. We will discover how these have become such a dominant art form.

Fashion Designers on Film

Whether looking for inspiration, added realism, or for some cutting-edge styles, film directors have often sought out fashion designers to clothe their characters.

Some of the results of these meetings of minds have proved iconic in both worlds; whereas others may have even entered our own wardrobes. Let's see if you can be tempted!
